Entries are in alphabetical order of surname. Under each person references are in chronological order. All entries are to individuals specifically named as being pipemakers unless otherwise stated, e.g. under Edward Evans the last sentence reads 'It is possible that the Edward Evans buried on 7 September 1690 refers to the same person (SJPR)'.

AIRES, John. c. 1800.

Oswald (1975, 162) gives the Freedom Rolls as evidence for this maker. So far the present writer (PJD) has been unable to trace this source or any other reference to this maker.

AIRES, Samuel. 1737-1812.

Baptized in the cathedral on 19 November 1737 (Hughes 1904, 18). Died aged 75 on 18 July 1812. Described as "an Honest and Inoffensive Man", (Hughes 1904, 47, note 31). Almost certainly the Samuel Aires of the Abbey Court who married Mary Golding on 21 August 1767, and whose daughter Mary was baptized on 3 August 1770, (SJPR).

AIRES, Thomas. 1789-1846.

Mentioned in Directories from 1789-1828, of Love Lane/Street. Voted in the elections of 1812 and 1818 (PO). Recorded aged 75 living with William and Elizabeth Pennington in 1841, (CEN). Will made on 12 December 1846, (Chest City RO-CR 39/56). (See Ayres and Pennington).

ALLEN, George. 1785.

Died aged 56 of fever, on 13 April, buried on 15 April 1785, (SJPR).

ALLENTON, Richard. 1767.

Apprentice of John Sharp, granted Freedom on 11 December 1767, (F).

ALLINGTON, George. 1767.

Apprentice of Thomas Jones granted Freedom on 12 December 1767, (F).

ALSOP, George. 1783

A son John died aged 3 of smallpox, on 23 October, buried on 25 October 1783, (SJPR).

AYRES and PENNINGTON. 1840-1848.

Mentioned in directories between 1840 and 1848 of Love Street. Spence (1942, 64) gives 1834 as the earliest reference and suggests a combination of Thomas and John Aires and William Pennington. Aires was recorded, aged 75, living with William Pennington in 1841, (CEN). William Pennington made his sole executor and beneficiary in 1846, (Chester City RO-CR 39/56).

BAGE, Joseph. 1794.

Took ----- Edson as apprentice for 7 years on 1 January 1794 (Roll damaged) (A).

BAILEY, James. 1749-1756.

His wife Mary died aged 46 of consumption on 27 April, buried on 30 April 1809, (SJPR). cf. fig. 71?

BAXTER, John. 1709.

Died; of Sletton (Oswald 1975, 162—Chester wills). This will has not been traced by the present writer. A Bryan Baxter of Sutton (South Lancashire) was recorded in 1726-29, as a pipeseller in the St Helens Parish Register. Sletton may be a misreading of Sutton; wills proved at Chester include muc of South Lancashire during this period.

BELLAMY, William. 1823.

Described at the baptism of his daughter Sarah, on 20 March 1823, as 'late William of Boughton', this daughter died aged 4 weeks, and was buried on 1 April 1823, at 'The House of Industry', (SJPR).cf. fig. 71?

BELLIS, William. 1805.

BLOOR. c. 1850.

A single pipe survived in the Grosvenor Museum (cf. Oswald 1975, 85, fig. 14, no. 1). Not traced by the writers and not likely to be of Chester manufacture.

BORDESSA, Pietro. 1864.

Described in Morris' Directory for 1864, as "auctioneer and valuer, pipen corksutter and sheriff's officer". The Newgate.

BOYNTON, William Andrew. 1871-1917.

Recorded in Directories between 1871-1916 as at variously, The Newgate, 3 Newgate, and Newgate, St John Street. A 'Pipe and Cork Manufactory' is shown on the OS 1:500 map of 1875 (Sheet xxxviii. 11.23) adjacent to and outside the walls just south of the Newgate. In February 1973, workmen laying a cable trench across the 'Roman Gardens', recovered a number of bowls marked WB on the spur which can be ascribed to this maker, (Davey, 1974: 76-38). Spence (1941-2, 66) gives further details as follows: " Boynton married Eliza Hughes ; he died aged 54 on 14 May 1885. His widow carried on the business until her death at the age of 94 on 27 March 1917. Both rest in Chester Cemetery". This is the only Chester pipeworks which survived into the 20th century. Group XV. cf. fig. 71?

BRADFORD, George. 1767.

Apprentice of Richard Jones, granted Freedom on 11 December 1767, (F).

BRYAN, Edward. 1758-1805.

Apprenticed to Richard Tinsdale for 7 years on 5 July 1758, (A). A son Edward born on 28 April, baptized on 2 June 1782, (SJPR). His apprentice Richard Payne made a Freeman on 5 August 1732 (F). Voted in elections of 1747, (PO). Probably the Thomas Cliffe who was buried at St Johns on 13 February 1766 (SJPR).

CRIMES, Robert. 1846.

Freedom granted on 11 August 1842; of Love Street (NF).

CULM, Arthur. 1732-1783.

Son of John Culm, leather seller, apprentice of Richard Golding (defunct), granted Freedom on 7 August 1732 (F). Voted in the elections of 1732 and 1747 (PO). Took Samuel Hewitt as apprentice for 5 years in 1750/1 (A). Apprentices Benj Culm granted Freedom on 1 August 1755, Robert Evans in 1762 (F), and Gabriel Evans and Robert Hough in 1767 (F). Died of palsy at the age of 79, on 12 January and was buried on 14 January 1783 (SJPR). His apprentice Samuel Hewitt granted Freedom in 1784 (F). Mary, relict Arthur Culm, pipemaker, died of decay aged 70 on 21 June and was buried 24 June 1800 (SJPR). Probably the same Arthur whose children were bapt in 1731, 1734, 1736 and 1743 (Wife Hannah) (SJPR).

CULM, Benj. 1755

The apprentice of Arthur Culm, granted Freedom on 1st April 1755 (F). A son Benjamin died aged 4 months, of smallpox on 10 January and was buried on 14 January 1789, (SJPR). EVANS, Edward. 1646-1690

Elizabeth daughter to Edward Evans, fisherman and pipemaker, christened on 20 December 1646, (Farrall, 1914, 41) (HTPR). This is the only referen to an Edward Evans, pipemaker. Holy Trinity Parish Registers record the baptism of a daughter in 1648 and a son Edward in 1651 which probably refer to the same Edward. The Churchwarden's accounts for Holy Trinity describ an Edward Evans as "poore" (i. e. too poor to pay) in 1667, in the Poor Rate Assessment. He does not appear in 1669. The 1664-65, Hearth Tax include an Edward Evans under the category of "persons returned unchargeable as no rated to, church and poor by reason of their povertie". He had one hearth. It is possible that the Edward Evans, buried on 7 September 1690 refers to th same person (SJPR). A single pipe survives (fig. 5, no. 11; fig. 46, no. 10)
